

Biography

Tyler Corder

Chief Financial Officer

Tyler Corder graduated from Montana State University in 1979 with a degree in Business Management. He also studied for two years at UNLV in the Masters of Business Administration program.

Following undergraduate graduation he joined General Motors Acceptance Corporation in Spokane, Wash. as a field representative. He advanced through various supervisory and managerial positions with GMAC in Washington, Montana and California prior to being named the branch manager in Las Vegas in 1992.

In 1994 he left GMAC to join the Findlay Automotive Group as chief financial officer. In 1998 he also assumed responsibility as general manager of Findlay Automotive. Findlay Automotive Group consists of 25 automobile dealerships in Nevada, Utah, Arizona and Idaho.

Corder is active in many charitable causes. He serves on the Advisory Board for Safe Nest, which provides shelter, counseling, and other services for those affected by domestic violence in the Las Vegas area. He is also the past president and treasurer of the Safe Nest Board of Directors. He also serves as treasurer of the Findlay Education Foundation which funds the Findlay Preparatory Academy at Henderson International School. Additionally, he is president of the Board of Trustees for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. Most recently, he was named the chairman for the American Heart Association's Heart Walk for both 2011 and 2012.

Tyler and his wife Marsha reside in Henderson, Nevada.